LOCAL IMPACT IN THE COMMUNITY

ENGAGEMENT EVENTS

INTERFAITH CELEBRATION AT THE JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER | I.J. & JEANNÉ WAGNER JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER | OCTOBER 27, 2022

PBS Utah collaborated with the Salt Lake Jewish Community Center (JCC), The United Jewish Federation, and the Golden Rule Project to present the community with an insightful discussion on belonging and understanding one another despite our differences. The conversation was expertly moderated by Dr. David Derezotes. PBS Utah had the privilege of inviting four faith leaders from the Utah community, representing the Jewish, Baptist, Muslim, and Mormon faiths. This event was made possible through a generous grant from WETA, which was connected to the documentary by Ken Burns, Lynn Novick, and Sarah Botstein, The U.S. and the Holocaust.

SHE VOTES UTAH | MARMALADE BRANCH LIBRARY | NOVEMBER 2, 2022

At the Marmalade Branch Library, PBS Utah, in partnership with KUER and the Library, welcomed 50 individuals of all ages to an engaging event where they learned about women in leadership and politics, both past and present. The event centered around Martha Hughes Cannon, and PBS Utah hosted a panel discussion featuring Nancy Green (producer), Becky Edwards (former legislator), and Nevaeh Parker (high school Black Lives Matter activist), moderated by RaeAnn Christensen from PBS Utah’s Utah Insight.

In addition, PBS Utah partnered with KUER to bring She Votes Utah to local communities. This initiative consisted of a twice-monthly newsletter packed with information about local politics and voting resources. This project aimed to encourage women, especially young women, to vote, given their declining participation in recent years.
FRIENDSHIP & BELONGING WORKSHOP SERIES | TUESDAYS, NOVEMBER 8 - DECEMBER 13TH, 2022

The PBS Utah Education team teamed up with the I.J. & Jeanné Wagner Jewish Community Center, Club J, after-school program for a 6-week workshop series centered around the theme of Friendship and Belonging. The workshops provided a unique opportunity for 70 children and 6 teachers to engage in discussions and activities related to these critical topics. Over the course of the workshops, the team utilized the educational content from the PBS KIDS series “Let’s Talk About” to facilitate conversations that encouraged children to share their perspectives and experiences related to friendship and belonging.

As a culmination of the series, two locally produced videos were created featuring the participants answering insightful questions about friendship and belonging. These videos not only captured the unique voices of the children but also served as powerful educational resources for viewers in Utah and beyond. In addition to the videos, the participants also collaborated on a unique art project called the “belonging bench,” which symbolized the inclusive and supportive community that was cultivated throughout the workshop series.

ALL CREATURES GREAT AND SMALL SCREENING | SALT LAKE CITY AND LOGAN | SALT LAKE CITY: DECEMBER 20, 2022  LOGAN: JANUARY 5, 2023

PBS Utah was delighted to welcome a total of 635 enthusiastic participants to the three screenings of All Creatures Great & Small held in Salt Lake City and Logan. These events were successfully made possible with the help of valued partners, the Salt Lake Film Society and Cache Valley Arts.

ROOTS, RACE, & CULTURE SEASON 2 LAUNCH PARTY
OGDEN CONTEMPORARY ARTS | FEBRUARY 6, 2023

PBS Utah hosted a launch party for Season 2 of Roots, Race, & Culture. The event took place at Ogden Contemporary Arts, where invitations were extended to Black individuals from the community to showcase their talents in dance, visual art, and performance art. Danor Gerald and Lonzo Liggins hosted the evening.

MODERN GARDENER TELE-TOWNHALL WITH AARP| JUNE 13, 2023

In partnership with AARP Utah, PBS Utah offered the community an opportunity to participate in a tele-townhall session focused on the digital series Modern Gardener and the practice of container gardening.

TELLING STORIES ABOUT OUR COMMUNITY

THIS IS UTAH

This is Utah, a weekly series from PBS Utah celebrating the diverse people who call Utah home, aired its fourth season in FY23. Host Liz Adeola guided viewers through stories about arts, culture, sports, places, and events as told through the voices of the people and communities that make Utah unique.

Episodes in the fourth season included Traveling Through Time, A Road Less Traveled, Utah’s Heritage Highway, Culture Craft, Challenge Accepted, and The Great Salt Lake.

Roots, Race & Culture is a series that invites viewers into open, honest conversations on identity and culture, centered around the experiences of Black and POC communities in Utah. FY23 brought the premiere of the second season of the show. Hosts Lonzo Liggins and Danor Gerald are joined by newsmakers, changemakers, experts, and entrepreneurs from Utah’s communities of color to discuss shared experiences with a healthy dose of humor, empathy, and candor.

Topics covered in Season 2 included Black Social Media, Ogden’s Black History, STEM & POC, and Indigenous Food Activism. Roots, Race & Culture is also a podcast with original content.

Billboard, PBS Utah’s on-air weekly events listing, aired a total of 300 events, with 16% of events representing locations and organizations located in rural Utah. Full listings are available on the Billboard Community Calendar page on the PBS Utah website.
TELLING STORIES ABOUT OUR COMMUNITY

MODERN GARDENER

PBS Utah’s digital gardening series celebrates and supports those committed to educating and enlightening Utahns about gardening and landscaping in our unique region. Modern Gardener entered its sixth year with returning host Cynthia Stringham of the popular blog Melon Monologues.

Episodes this season showed viewers how to landscape on a budget, cultivate fungi, start an herbal tea garden, and so much more.

CONTACT WITH MARY DICKSON

PBS Utah is committed to inviting individual leaders from diverse communities to share their programs and events on Contact, a nightly interview program that airs on PBS Utah and is also available to stream online.

The program provided a platform for 187 individuals representing various cultures and promoting services to minority and marginalized communities. Contact aired a total of 187 events, with 3% representing locations and organizations in rural Utah.

RADIOWEST FILMS ON PBS UTAH

RadioWest Films on PBS Utah curates stories told through cinematic short films. The films premiere in digital format and then are repackaged as a 30-minute episode for broadcast. A collaboration between KUER and PBS Utah, RadioWest Films on PBS Utah is a compilation of intimate tales that deepen our understanding of the West and the people who call it home, curated by RadioWest’s Filmmaker in Residence, Dane Christensen.

RadioWest Films on PBS Utah episode 2, titled Portraits, is comprised of three stories that depict the importance of preserving cultural heritage, the power of vulnerability, and the transformative nature of finding passion: The People Will Always Be There, Noah’s Latter-day Dilemma, and Flying a Kite Off a Cloud.
READING MARATHON | NOVEMBER 1-30, 2022

The Reading Marathon encourages children to read 20 minutes daily for 30 days during the month of November. A reading log helps children track their reading. Children who completed the Reading Marathon and submit their reading log receive an Adventure Pass, providing free entrance to local museums, aviaries, and zoos.

In total, 25,315 readers participated in the Reading Marathon, a 35.9% increase in participation from the previous year (FY22).

MINI READING MARATHONS

PBS Utah provides funding to support Mini Reading Marathons at libraries, schools, and non-profit organizations in small communities 100 miles or more from Salt Lake County. Support ranged from $100 to $500 and was used for organizations to host a Mini Reading Marathon and reading party for their community.

Mini Reading Marathons hosted by rurally located libraries, schools, and community service organizations ensures populations affected by Utah's geography can equally access and benefit from early literacy initiatives.

SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS AND BOOK DISTRIBUTIONS

PBS Utah has been experimenting with ways to continue to reach children, families, and educators to support early learning and literacy. In the spring of 2023, PBS Utah continued its role in school partnerships to provide support to teachers. PBS KIDS Utah hosted and participated in 34 education events with 14,042 participants.

For 2022-2023, PBS Utah provided 13,937 books, presented 15 times to educators and/or students, tabled 20 events, and provided educational supplies and resources to 22 schools and community organizations for distribution.
WRITERS & ILLUSTRATORS CONTEST

The Writers & Illustrators Contest fosters imagination and creativity in young artists and writers. Every year, PBS Kids Utah invites children throughout the state to participate.

194 children in grades K-6 submitted stories with 21 selected winners and 2 honorable mentions. A Full list of winning stories and illustrations can be found at www.pbsutah.org/writers. Winning stories will be part of the 2023-2024 Writers & Illustrators Contest Traveling Exhibit.
